With spring now upon us, what better time for you to explore Manningham and enter the 2018 Manningham Community Calendar Photo Competition. Last year was brilliant and for this year’s competition we are inviting you to photograph the local treasures and hidden gems of Manningham. Play tourist in your local community or share the places you take your friends and family to show off where you live.

Manningham is so unique, not many communities can boast our mix of cosmopolitan convenience, lifestyle choices, rural charm and natural beauty, be inspired no matter how young or wise you are!

A community with so much to offer presents both opportunities and challenges. As our community grows and evolves, we need to retain and protect the appeal of Manningham while ensuring our City is sustainable and meeting the needs of the people who live, work and travel here.

In this issue, we also consider how we plan for our community now and into the future, along with some of the transport options currently being considered by the State Government.

Manningham Council continues to lobby the State Government for improved public transport in Manningham. The current Bus Rapid Transit proposal is a short to medium term option to help address the currently overcrowded public transport services.

This time next month is the Mayoral Ball. Thank you to everyone who has shared their stories and support so far. See you there.

NORTH EAST LINK

Last month the State Government via the North East Link Authority held information sessions and asked the community to share their thoughts on four possible corridor options as part of the business case development for North East Link.

North East Link is a proposed new freeway to connect Melbourne’s freeway network between the M80 Ring Road at Greensborough and the Eastern Freeway or EastLink.

As the project progresses there will be more opportunities for the community to provide their input.

To learn more about the North East Link and register for updates:

The State Government through Plan Melbourne 2017-2050 requires that Manningham, just like all other councils in Melbourne, provides more sustainable and liveable options to accommodate the City’s population growth as it approaches 8 million.

That is why Council has taken deliberate steps to minimise inappropriate development from a large part of the municipality by designating a small area for change and more intense development around main roads and in Doncaster Hill. Without this approach, the whole of the municipality could have been subject to more intense development.

Planning is important because it helps shape, manage and protect community liveability now and for future generations.

Manningham Council CEO, Warwick Winn said population growth has consequences locally as well as across Melbourne.

“We know that residents are concerned about a number of issues that are relevant to Planning in Manningham, ranging from density and development to how changes in the community impact traffic, parking management and protection of open space and the natural environment.

The Manningham Planning Scheme sets out the objectives, policies and provisions for the use, development and protection of land within the municipality, and must be in accordance with State planning policy.

In line with all council’s, following the endorsement of our Council Plan 2017-2021, the State Government requires that Council reviews the Manningham Planning Scheme. In the coming issues of Manningham Matters a range of planning topics will be discussed as part of an ongoing conversation with our community about how Council continues to moderate and accommodate how Manningham evolves into the future.
PUSH FOR BUS RAPID TRANSIT

Manningham Council is advocating to the State Government to ensure that a Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) service gets the green light to provide the community with a mass-transit solution in the absence of rail. Manningham is the only metropolitan municipality with no rail. A report on BRT was presented to Council at the end of August.

This follows a BRT being listed as a key recommendation in ‘Victoria’s 30-year Infrastructure Strategy, 2016’ prepared by Infrastructure Victoria and supported by the State Government, and a $550 million BRT market-led proposal by operator, Transdev, announced earlier this year.

The Minister for Public Transport, Jacinta Allan MP, last year confirmed the State Government was committing $100 million to improve local bus networks across Victoria. This included undertaking a feasibility study on the Doncaster BRT proposal, first highlighted by Infrastructure Victoria, along the Eastern Freeway, with Public Transport Victoria (PTV) undertaking the study.

Specifically, Council is pushing for the Department of Premier and Cabinet to give certainty to this proposal by including the Doncaster BRT in its five-year infrastructure implementation plan which is due to be released in December this year.

Manningham Mayor, Cr Michelle Kleinert, said getting the green light for the Doncaster BRT was imperative to achieve much needed public transport options and support population growth, economic activity, access to jobs and services and provide sustainable alternatives to private motor vehicle use.

“While Council is not endorsing a specific scheme, we want to see the Doncaster BRT built and operational as soon as possible.”

“With no rail servicing our municipality it is no surprise we have some of the highest rates of car ownership in the State.”

“Our community is continually raising a lack of public transport services as one of their biggest challenges.”

The Doncaster BRT will go a long way to alleviating public transport pressures and congestions on our freeways. It’s a no brainer, we just need the State Government to come to the party on this,” said Cr Kleinert.

DID YOU KNOW?

An analysis of car ownership in 2016, indicates 62% of households in the City of Manningham had access to two or more motor vehicles, compared to 51% in Greater Melbourne.

In 2011, 36,052 (67.8%) of the City of Manningham’s working residents travelled outside of the area to work.

According to Infrastructure Victoria, the Doncaster BRT would improve the frequency, capacity and efficiency of bus links to inner Melbourne particularly during congested peak hours, making it easier to access jobs and services.
This new customer service contact centre forms part of Council’s wider Citizen Connect program and is the first in a series of projects being developed to make it easier to communicate and do business with Council.

Manningham Council CEO Warwick Winn said the new contact centre will help Manningham to become a more contemporary, connected and customer focussed organisation.

“Manningham is putting our citizens at the centre of everything we do. Our research showed that residents most valued consistent service and having their enquiry resolved in a timely manner,” Mr Winn said.

“Our new contact centre is capable of responding and resolving a wide range of service enquiries at the first point of contact, thereby providing a more valued, consistent and enhanced customer service experience,” he said.

As part of changing the way it does business, Manningham is undertaking a series of transformation projects which includes a Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system, additional online payments, online planning applications – viewing and lodgement, and an information management transformation.

Manningham Council is using technology and process improvement as a catalyst to support this change in its effort to become a higher performing organisation – delivering services that meet the community’s needs, expectations and preferences.

“We are focussed on providing real time interaction and more choices around how customers can connect with us to meet customer needs now and into the future.” Mr Winn said.

Council’s contact details will not change.

MANNINGHAM’S PLANNING REGISTER

The Manningham planning register advertises planning applications made to Council and is one of the most frequently visited pages on Council’s website.

As part of making it easier to do business with us, Council has updated the existing online register so that our community can view and track current advertised planning applications (including any related documentation and plans) online.

In addition, the online register allows submissions to be made directly against a planning application and updates to be provided via email.

Later this year the community will also be able to lodge and pay for new planning permit applications and S72 Amendments via Council’s website.

Additional benefits achieved include:
- A single source of data for customer enquiries and information
- Greater convenience for our customers, who no longer need to come into or contact Council to view planning applications, documents and plans
- Reduced staff administration time, allowing staff to spend time on other priority tasks such as processing applications
- A standard platform which will support future updates and upgrades including the ability to search for planning permits ‘near me’.

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS

热烈祝贺曼宁厄姆华裔老年俱乐部成立30周年!

The Chinese Senior Citizens Club of Manningham Inc. was established in 1987 by Mrs Monica Lee. Since then the club has excelled at promoting the Chinese culture and traditions through activities and events that bring people together.

Each Wednesday between 8.30 am and 2.30 pm the Chinese Senior Citizens Club of Manningham Inc. meet at the Ajani Centre, Lower Templestowe.

Members benefit from a range of different activities and interest groups including Tai Chi (fist, fan, sword and pole), Qi-qong, healthy exercise programs, walking groups, line dances, group dances, folk dances, Yang Sang dance, table tennis, choir, Chinese calligraphy classes, Bridge, Mah Jong, karaoke and Cantonese opera.

Festive occasions are celebrated with special lunches and programs.

As part of the 30th anniversary celebrations some of the members were kind enough to share their memories.

Hardy Shum has been President of the club since 2004 and before that served as both Treasurer and Vice President.

“I enjoy organising activities for the club and an opportunity for the seniors to happily come together every week to share a meal and participate in different activities.”

“The club is like my family, all the hard work pays off when I see everyone happy and busy enjoying themselves.”

“I am really grateful for everyone that helps, volunteering their time to assist the club,” he said.

Retired Chef, King-Fong Lee, has been with the club for 30 years. He used to volunteer his time and skill to prepare the weekly members’ lunch. He’s also seen the membership grow from about 30 in 1987 to more than 1,000 today.

Mi Mi Poon, Gordon GeeWah and Han-Wai Louey all agreed that the club is all about great leadership, helping each other and that they enjoyed the friendships most of all.
