From Sunday, 27 July 2014, you will benefit from a new bus network in Manningham.

Features of your new bus network include:

- > Simpler routes with buses on routes 270, 271 and 285 travelling more directly to key destinations.
- > Longer operating hours, with buses running for longer hours on weekdays and weekends.
- > More punctual and reliable services, plus we are making timetables easier to understand.
- > Improved connections to key destinations and stations including Croydon, Ringwood, Mitcham, Blackburn and Box Hill railway stations.
- > New weekend services, with Saturday services on Route 285 and new Sunday services on Route 270.

Check out these changed timetables

Before you travel, please note the following routes have new timetables: 200, 207, 270, 271, 284, 285, 295, 302, 304, 305, 318, 364, 370, 380, 901, 902, 903, 905, 906, 907 and 908.

Please note bus routes 202, 203, 205, 286, 303, 313, 315, 366 and 367 have been replaced by the new bus network.

Where we have changed bus routes, you will have another bus service available within approximately 400 – 600 metres.
