Congratulations to Manningham’s very own Winter Olympians, Scotty James and David Morris. We were all behind them as they represented Australia in PyeongChang 2018, their third Olympics.

Halfpipe snowboarder, Scotty James was honoured as Australia’s flag bearer at the opening ceremony and returned home with a bronze medal. Sochi 2014 silver medallist David Morris finished in 10th place, just one spot outside of the penultimate round of the Men’s Aerials.

Continuing with the Olympic spirit, Premier’s Active April encourages all Victorians to commit to at least 30 minutes of physical activity a day.

There are lots of ways to exercise in Manningham, read page 6 and 7 for inspiration.

Join the Compost Revolution

Do you know by simply recycling your food scraps you can cut your rubbish in half?

As part of this program, Manningham residents will get 60% off the purchase of a compost bin, worm farm or bokashi bin plus free delivery from Manningham Council.

Your new compost bin, worm farm or bokashi bin will help you transform your food scraps into soil and fertiliser at home.

Manningham has partnered with Compost Revolution, an award-winning social enterprise to inspire, educate and equip you to reduce the volume of food scraps sent to landfill.

Compost Revolution was co-designed with Australian councils to help households start composting and worm farming. We are excited to join more than 40 councils around the country in this initiative.

WHAT IF I LIVE IN AN APARTMENT WITH NO GARDEN SPACE?

Check with your body corporate or strata manager to find out what’s permitted in your apartment building. You can then give the fertiliser and worm castings to a friend or nearby community garden.

Did you know that almost 50% of gamers are women? How much do you know about the integral role women have played in shaping gaming? Though they still comprise less than 10% of the industry, the contribution of women is enormous.

Press play on Code Breakers, the first Australian exhibition celebrating the achievements of women working in the video games industry. Whether it’s making commercial hits or indie titles, these women know games, contributing as directors, programmers, developers, artists, writers, producers and designers.

Inside the exhibition, you can crush bullies in Ninja Pizza Girl, run with animals in Armello or race suped-up cars in Need for Speed: No Limits. These are games made by emerging and established makers. From platformers, RPGs and digital board games to graphical adventures and puzzlers, there’s something for everyone, at every skill level.

Alongside the fun, Code Breakers ponder important questions.

How do women carve a path in an industry that has historically been less welcoming to them?

How do we encourage diversity? Each maker reflects on the sometimes challenging journey they’ve made in this industry, revealing their stories behind the games.

The exhibition was curated in collaboration with an advisory committee consisting of key industry figures Kate Inabinet, Helen Stuckey and Leena van Deventer.

CURATOR AND MAKER TALK:

Saturday 28 April, 11.30am
Doncaster Library, MC Square
687 Doncaster Road, Doncaster

To explore these questions further, ACMI Code Breakers Curator Serena Bentley, along with one of the exhibition’s featured narrative and game designers, Brooke Maggs, will lead a discussion about the challenges faced by women working in the traditionally male-dominated games industry.

Overlooking Templestowe Village

Multi-award winning fine artist, Julian Clavijo (pictured below), has created his latest masterpiece on a side wall of Templestowe Village’s Alexandra The Great, overlooking a community gathering area.

Milton Tsanatelis commissioned the work with the support of Manningham’s community grants program.

The artwork features Alexandra, the daughter of Alexandra The Great owner, Milton.

“As a relatively new business, we have been overwhelmed by the support of locals and the family spirit that flows through Templestowe Village,” he said.

Mr Clavijo said children represented humanity, innocence and the ability to dream big.

“The bird on Alexandra’s shoulder represents the freedom to dream without limits,” he said. “Together, I like to remind people to dream without limits.”

The mural can be viewed at Templestowe Village Shopping Centre, 27 Andersons St, Templestowe.

This year, we are offering 9 sessions for parents, grandparents and carers in Manningham.

These seminars are a chance for you to hear from a range of guest speakers, connect with other families and share ideas.

manningham.vic.gov.au/parenting-seminar-series

Launching the series is one of Australia’s most renowned adolescents and child psychologists, Dr Michael Carr-Gregg.

Dr. Michael Carr-Gregg is an author of 11 books and broadcaster specialist in parenting, children and adolescents.

“Why do we need a community to talk about building happy and resilient children?

“Simple – the journey from childhood through to young adulthood seems to have become so much harder to navigate,” said Dr. Michael Carr-Gregg.

“Just when a young person's identity and sense of self is at its most fragile, they are facing more potential rejection and judgment courtesy of social media, than even the most robust of egos could handle," he said. “Like never before, as parents, carers, other adults we need the skills, knowledge and strategies to promote resilience in young people.”

Dr. Michael Carr-Gregg appears by arrangement with Saxton Speakers Bureau.

MONSTER COMMUNITY RAFFLE

WHAT’S THE RAFFLE ALL ABOUT?
The Kiwanis Club of Manningham administers the Monster Raffle. All Manningham based community organisations, schools and sporting clubs are invited to take part in the Manningham Monster Raffle by selling tickets. For every $2 ticket sold, $1.50 goes to the organisation who sells the ticket and 50 cents is returned to the Manningham Community Fund to support community programs offered by charitable organisations within our community.

First prize is a $5,000 Coles/Myer gift voucher with an additional 5 $1,000 Coles/Myer vouchers as prizes.

WHO HAS BENEFITTED FROM THE RAFFLE?
One cause that has become important to the Kiwanis Club of Manningham is the Heart Kids’ Family Camp. Heart Kids is an association of families who have had a child receive heart surgery, usually at a very early age. In these families, the child’s health issues usually cause the family to have to adjust their lifestyle and often parents are on 24-hour alert in case of any complications with their child’s health.

The Kiwanis Club of Manningham has established a weekend away for the whole family. At the camp:

• The whole family develops friendships and enjoy new experiences
• Parents meet other parents facing the same issues and have time to talk with each other
• Parents are able to express concerns with others who have a common understanding.

WHO RUNS THE RAFFLE?
The raffle is administered by the Kiwanis Club of Manningham and supported by Manningham. It will be drawn at the inaugural Civic Awards Ceremony on Wednesday 23 May at the Manningham Function Centre. Results of the draw will be published on the websites below on 24 May 2018.
