Pre-sale Inspection for Food Businesses

Purchasing an existing business

If you are looking at purchasing an existing food business we recommend you apply for a pre-sale inspection before buying the business. A pre-sale inspection identifies all non-compliant items under the Food Act 1984 and Australian and New Zealand Food Standards Code.

After we issue the report, it is the responsibility of the purchaser and current owner to negotiate and resolve all outstanding non-compliant items. Any outstanding issues not resolved at settlement will become the responsibility of the new owner.

If you have already taken over a food business without a pre-sale inspection, you must contact our Health Team to Register your food business before operating.

Consent from the current owner

Due to privacy laws, the current owner must sign to give consent for Council to release the inspection report to you or your solicitor.

Timeframes

The standard timeframe for a pre-sale is 10 working days. We offer a priority service within 5 working days with an additional 50% charge cost – please visit our website for our fees and charges.

Fees and charges

Once we receive your pre-sale application, our Health Team will generate a tax invoice. An inspection will be organised by your Environmental Health Officer when payment has been made.

Please visit our website for our current fees and charges.
